1. [] LIAISON Jack McDonald, Special Investigator, Office of Naval Intelligence, called with respect to a request from [] in the Pleasant Hill District office of Representative George Miller (D., Calif.), attempting to track down a [] who supposedly worked for Naval Intelligence. I had dealt with [] on this matter previously and McDonald merely called to see if I had any additional background which might be of help to him. I told him I had none.

2. [] LIAISON John Bailey, in the Newark District office of Senator Clifford P. Case (R., N.J.), called asking for an explanation as to why the CIA budget was smaller than the NSA budget. I asked him where he had obtained his information and he said he had gotten it from Victor Marchetti's book and implied that, therefore, it was true. I told him that while CIA had caused some deletions in Marchetti's book, that did not mean that the remaining information was officially endorsed by the Agency or any other Government agency. I told him we would not comment one way or the other on the relative sizes of the budgets involved and suggested that perhaps he might want to touch base with Senator Case's Washington office since the Senator is on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. He said he would do this and understood my reluctance to comment. The request was prompted by a professor who is a constituent of Senator Case.

3. [] LIAISON Accompanied [] DDO, to a meeting with Sam Goldberg, Administrative Assistant to Senator H. John Heinz (R., Pa.), with respect to a sensitive matter. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

4. [] LIAISON Met with Representative Paul N. McCloskey (R., Calif.) with respect to his inquiry into a sensitive Agency activity. (See Memorandum for the Record.)
